We Change Lives and We Save Lives

Brother Knights,

Have you heard this mantra before? It is taken from a section of our recent Revitalization Members Meetings led by Patrick Maloney, our newly assigned Supreme Representative. And I quote, "We change lives, and we save lives as Knights." Pat repeated this statement three times to drive home the point. And it hit home for me, not because he repeated it, but because it's true!

Without question, the Knights of Columbus change Catholic men's lives. Each and every one tells me that they are a better person than they were before becoming a Knight. You see it in the leaders that we have across the state. The Grand Knights and Financial Secretaries all are true Servant Leaders and better men for their role in the Knights. Those of you reading this article know it as well for yourselves. So, it is also up to us to share this with others by sharing stories about what we are involved with.... what our legacy is! You don't build a great reputation by not sharing the story. So, go out and tell the story about how your council built this room, raised funds for a family in dyer needs, or led the rosary Sunday mornings. Each little story about the good of the Order builds on that legacy; a legacy we are proud of.

Have you changed a life or saved a life or a soul, today? I pray that we keep the legacy of the Knights of Columbus shining brightly from this point forward. Come join me in Saving Lives and Changing Lives!

Joe Konrardy,
State Deputy

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE AND PANCAKE BREAKFAST BOTH ON NOVEMBER 17

We will need lots of help on the week-end of November 16 and 17. We are having a Membership Drive that week-end, and also the pancake breakfast. At our last meeting the consensus was that both events would help each other, so we will need lots of help.

We will have announcements after each mass, and have members waiting to talk to prospective Knights in the gathering room, and also in McCarty Hall. I have a plenty of recruitments folders and information available, so we hope to have some success!

Father McNea has been a great supporter of the Knights, so let's show him what we can do!

Please plan to attend the regular meeting on Tuesday, and volunteer to help at one of the masses. If you volunteer for the mass you attend, it will be an easy chore for you.

RESPECT FOR LIFE FLOWER SALES VERY GOOD

We sold a record number of flower bouquets for this event. We should come out just fine, but our costs are not all in. We should have somewhere near $600 profit for our charity fund. We will have final details next month.

RELIGIOUS CHRISTMAS CARDS NOW AVAILABLE

We have now received our religious Christmas cards and will have them for sale at most masses until we are sold out. (We sold out last year so hopefully we will again this year.)
