Dear Brother Knights,

January was a good month for us! Everything we attempted turned out well.

Our campaign to get new Knights went successful. We have five men signed up, and a possible one or two more may send in applications. We also had one Knight transfer to St. Francis, and a possible second one. We will try to get all of our potential Knights men initiated with the First Degree in February, or in March with all three Degrees.

Argene Treder is in charge of the Initiations, and may need some help, so please help him if needed.

Our Free Throw Competition on February 2nd also went well. Jim Arendt, Dan Bochmann and Al Steichen, along with help from Resurrection Knights had 51 boys and girls throw 15 free throws. Six boys and six girls were winners and move up to the next competition. St. Francis School gave us a great deal of help!

And our January Pancake Breakfast was a great success. We took in over $965, so we were able to give St. Francis School $755. That is the best we have done for some time!

Thank you very much Pancake Workers!

In February, most of our work will be in trying to get our potential members initiated in February or March. Then we get ready for the Tootsie Roll Campaign for Disabled persons.

Thanks again to all of you that made January the great month it was!

Fraternally,
John Hunt
Grand Knight
